DIVYA PANDYA: THE IMAGINATION OF A CHILD- ONE OF THE MOST FANTASTIC THINGS

Since I was a child, drawing has been one of my passions. I also loved to day dream, read fairy tales and enjoyed all things fantastical. This drawing is a memory of just how incredible a child's imagination can be. As I continue my journey in medicine, it is refreshing to be able to use my dreams to fantasize and to find ways that I can make a difference in healthcare in the future.
